

TRADE IS PUZZLING
SAYS DUN'S REPORTELECTION EXCITEMENT HURTS
BUSINESS CONDITIONS.

The Volume of Production Is Well Maintained—Business, However, Shows Little Far-Reaching Improvement—List of the Week's Failures Depression In Wheat and Cotton.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "The last week of October, with an exciting election near, can not indicate much of the true condition of business. But it is satisfactory that the volume of production is well maintained and in one or two branches increased; that no monetary difficulties disturb; that breadstuffs are a little higher; and that no material decline appears during the week in manufactured products. At present the volume of business transacted is on the whole smaller than last year and much smaller than in 1892, though a Presidential election was then close at hand.

"Corn has advanced 4 cents, with western receipts about a third and exports about an eighth of last year's. Yet pork and hogs are somewhat lower, with lard about the same. Wheat is three fourths of a cent higher for spot and 1 cent for December, and it looks as if strength in corn had prevented a further decline, although western receipts were only 4,587,670 bushels for the week, against 6,503,171 last year, and Atlantic exports increased to 696,566 bushels, against 740,506 last year. Cotton is again lower, spot being 5.75, with receipts so heavy that large crop estimates are favored, though it makes little difference in the real prospect whether the yield is 500,000 or 1,000,000 bales greater than the world's requirement, with great stocks of old cotton in sight. The depression of cotton and wheat and the partial loss of the corn crop must be reckoned an important cause of hesitancy in the real distribution of products.

"Waiting for retail trade depresses the textile manufactures and concessions in price have been made to effect large contracts. Otherwise the market is generally dull, without indications of any improvement. In wools, the fall and winter demand is disappointing, though still fairly large for the season, but the expected supplemental orders do not appear, and great uncertainty prevails as to spring goods. No changes of price are noted. Manufacturers are not disposed to produce in advance of the change Jan. 1, and so are buying only for current needs, and in the west it is complained that wool goes begging at prices below the parity of similar wool abroad on the secured basis. At the three eastern markets sales for the week were 4,099,000 pounds, against 4,458,500 last year and 7,054,953 in 1892.

"During the last week failures have been 249 in the United States, against 355 last week, and 50 in Canada, against 28 last week."

NANAIMO, B. C., Nov. 3.—The steamer Princess Louise, just down from the north, brings intelligence of a terrible disaster at Shoshartie Bay, at the northwest end of Vancouver Island, which completely wrecked the settlement recently established there known as the Canadian Co-operative Commonwealth. Four of the inmates lost their lives.

BANDITS CAUGHT.

One Confesses that He Was in the Missouri Pacific Job at Claremore.

CLAREMORE, I. T., Nov. 3.—Deputy Marshal Beard and City Policeman Chambers arrested Melvin Galloway here last evening, supposed to be one of the Cook gang and one of the men who figured in the holdup of the Missouri Pacific depot at this place some time ago. Galloway was seen with Columbus Means, one of the men of whose head the government has placed a reward of $250, near the place, and since that time he has been scouting. Last evening he and another man rode into town and put their horses in the livery stable, saying they had come to stay all night. As soon as the officers learned of Galloway's presence they put him under arrest and in jail under a heavy guard. By the liberal use of spirits and a little coaxing they succeeded in getting him to acknowledge that he was in the Missouri Pacific holdup here. Marshal Beard stated he made a clean breast of the affair.

MANY PEOPLE HURT
IN VARIOUS WAYSYESTERDAY DEVELOPED A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Three Persons Hurt in a Chicago Wreck—Blame for the Accident Not Placed—Many Injured in a Street Car Collision at Cincinnati—C. & N. W. Smashup.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A serious accident occurred on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago tracks at South Chicago last evening when the west bound suburban passenger train, due in Chicago at 7:30 o'clock, dashed into a coal train of the Calumet & Blue Island railroad. No lives were lost, but several people were seriously injured. The engine of the passenger train was badly wrecked. A few seconds before the crash came Frank Simons, the engineer, and J. Bund, Jr., the fireman, jumped from the engine and escaped without serious injury. Just how the accident occurred is unexplained. The crews of the two trains tell conflicting stories. The Fort Wayne train, with few passengers on board, was running at thirty miles an hour, supposedly on a clear track. The first intimation of danger was when Engineer Simons sighted the coal train ahead. He reversed his engine and leaped from the train, calling upon the fireman to do the same. Their prompt action saved their lives and probably those of many on the train, for by the time the crash came the speed of the passenger locomotive had been materially checked.

ARE HURT IN A COLLISION.

Electric Car and Narrow Gauge Passenger Train Come Together.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—A Fairmount electric car and a Westwood narrow gauge passenger train collided at the Beekman street crossing at 6:30 o'clock last evening. Eight people were injured, one fatally, two dangerously. Three people, who refused to give names, were painfully cut and bruised, but reached home unattended. The motorman saw the train coming and tried to cross the track in front of it. When the crash came the front truck of the electric was knocked from under it and the motorman was thrown head first through his cab window, and striking the tender of the train, rebounded to the ground unconscious.

Wreck on the Northwestern Road.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Freight train No. 119, east bound on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, was wrecked at 7:30 o'clock last night a half mile west of Elmhurst. The train parted when nearing that station, and in coupling the several sections together a collision occurred, resulting in the demolition of seven or eight cars of freight and the blocking of both east and west bound tracks for several hours. All trains were delayed. Brakeman Joy had one foot so badly crushed that amputation will probably be necessary.

Unknown Man Killed.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—As freight train No. 63 of the Louisville & Nashville was approaching Springfield, Tenn., at 11 o'clock last night, it parted, and the two sections rushing together made a bad wreck. Several cars were demolished. An unknown man, supposed to be sealing a ride, was killed.

CZAR AND KAISER WILL MEET SOONSO SAYS A REPORT FROM THE GERMAN CAPITAL.

A Tribute Paid to the Memory of Emperor Alexander—London Standard Says His Life Was One Long Martyrdom—Paid the Price—Summary of the Foreign News.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—It is said that the Kaiser and Emperor Nicholas are to meet soon.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—The official messenger yesterday published the first proclamation of Emperor Nicholas II of Russia in which, after formally communicating to the nation the news of the death of his father, Alexander III, he says:

"May the knowledge console you that our grief is the grief of our entire beloved nation and may the nation not forget that the strength and firmness of holy Russia lies in its unity and unbounded devotion to us. In this sad and solemn hour in which we ascend our ancestral throne of the Russian empire and czarism of Poland and the grand duchy of Finland indissolubly linked with it, we, however, remember the legacy left us by our lamented father and imbued with it we, in the presence of the most high, take a vow to make our sole aim the development of the power and glory of our beloved Russia and the happiness of our faithful subjects."

The manifesto concludes with the command that the oath of allegiance be taken to him, Emperor Nicholas II, and to his heir apparent, Grand Duke George Alexandrovitch, his brother, who is to be entitled czarowitch until God may bless with a son the union which his majesty is about to enter into with Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt.

Alexander's Life a Martyrdom.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—In recalling the circumstances of the accession of Alexander III, to the throne the Standard says: "His life was one long martyrdom, which he bore with serene fortitude. That he kept his head clear and his judgement stable argues his uncommon strength of character. The price had to be paid for this stern exercise of will power. It may readily be believed that the malady to which he succumbed had its origin in his disappointments of heart and vexations of mind. We believe that the Franco-Russian friendship will be little affected by his death. His son Nicholas must move for a considerable time in the grooves of policy worn by others."

In all probability it will be the largest single edifice ever erected for the exclusive purpose of habitation. Its equipment will be all that genius and riches can supply, and the whole establishment will be made a sight for pilgrimages.

BAD DEBTS ARE AIRED.

Plankinton Bank's Assets Sharply Gone Over at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—More of the rottenness of the Plankinton bank was aired in the ex-parte hearing of the case against Vice-President William Plankinton in the Municipal court yesterday. William Van Dyke, the secretary of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Lake Superior Telegraph company, stated that Messrs. Day and Plankinton were stockholders in that company and that the first was treasurer and the latter vice-president. This company used the bank's funds as its own. Banker Charles W. Hsley testified that the clearing house had loaned the Plankinton bank $200,000 on $260,000 of securities in order to help it out when it was on the rocks, but the district attorney was unable to get an admission from him that the bankers in the clearing house at that time knew the condition of the bank. Robert Hill, the vice-president of the Wisconsin National bank in 1893, said he examined Lappen's affairs before his failure and found he had been bankrupt for two months. In his opinion the committee of the Plankinton bank could have ascertained the same facts. The hearing was continued to Nov. 19.

SITUATION AT NEW ORLEANS.

White Laborers Will Not Work with Colored Organizations.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 3.—The labor situation on the levee is in no way improved. The organizations of the white longshoremen and screwmen held secret meetings Thursday night and yesterday their presidents informed the Cotton Exchange committee that it had been definitely decided not to work with the colored organizations. However they promised not to interfere with the colored laborers. Probably no active steps will be taken by either side until after the elections, when, it is believed, the lines will be tightly drawn and the ship agents will make a determined effort to entirely break up union labor on the levee.

Arthur Porter's New Bunch of Records.

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 3.—Arthur Porter of Waltham yesterday lowered three of Tyler's world's cycle records and cut several Class A records. He was paced by a triplet. Porter first went against his own Class A one-mile record, flying start, of 56 seconds, lowering it to 53 seconds. His quarter in 25 1-5 was a new Class A record, and the third in 34 1-5 was the fastest ever ridden in the world on a cycle track. Porter then rode against the standing start records, paced. His times were: 33 seconds, 42 seconds, 59 1/2 seconds, 1:18 2-5, 1:28 3-5, 1:58 1-5. The second third was 4-5 second and the third quarter was 2-5 second faster than Tyler's world's records, and the mile time was 1-4-5 seconds better than Porter's own mile Class A record.

PACKING HOUSE FIRE AT OMAHA.

The Hammond Company's Big Plant Was Destroyed Yesterday.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 3.—A portion of the large packing and slaughtering establishment of the G. H. Hammond company at South Omaha, is in ruins. The entire fire departments of Omaha and South Omaha made a desperate fight yesterday against the spread of the fire to the entire group of the Hammond buildings, which are huddled closely together, as well as to the immense packing plants of Swift & Co., and the Cudahy company, and the flames were got under control. The buildings of Swift & Co. are only about half or two-thirds of a block distant from the portion of the Hammond plant while the Cudahy plant is about half a mile distant.

As the flames had nearly been got under control two firemen belonging to the Hammond plant fire department were caught under a falling wall and instantly killed.

It is supposed that the fire broke out about 8 o'clock. It obtained a tremendous start, and the killing and the chill rooms were soon burned. The beef slaughtering house, in which the fire originated, is the largest of the Hammond company's buildings, and it was practically gutted.

The beef house was a good modern brick building, well equipped, and is said to have cost $200,000. It is five stories high and the dimensions are about 250x350 feet. As it is almost surrounded by railroad tracks it was very difficult for the firemen to make a successful battle against the flames.

It is estimated that the loss on the beef house alone will reach $400,000, as it was killing 600 or more cattle a day and was well stocked. The insurance on the entire Hammond company plant here is placed at $1,500,000. The works will be rebuilt.

The G. H. Hammond company was established in 1869 and incorporated under the laws of Michigan in 1890. A large share of its stock is held by English capitalists, although a great amount of American money is also invested in the concern. Its general offices and its largest packing establishment are located at Hammond, Ind. The Hammond slaughter house kills twice the number of cattle that are slaughtered at the South Omaha house, but no hogs are killed at Hammond. Many of the hogs killed at Omaha are shipped whole to the Hammond plant to be cut up and packed. The Chicago offices of the company are in the Continental National bank building and at 244 Lake street. The Detroit branch office is in the Hammond building and the Boston office at 54 Chatham street.

NEEDN'T PRODUCE BOOKS.

Decision of a Pittsburg Judge in the Oleomargarine Cases.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—Judge Buffington in the United States district court decided that C. B. Clark, agent for Armour & Co., need not produce his books to refute charges of fraudulent returns on oleomargarine sold. The action was brought by E. P. Kearns, collector of internal revenue, who claimed that the monthly returns of the company were false.

In his answer Mr. Clark said that Armour & Co. had paid all taxes due the government and that the books would not be produced to obtain evidence against third parties for violating the oleomargarine law. Judge Buffington declared that wholesale dealers could not be compelled to produce their books.

Janesville people will listen to a speech by the next governor of Wisconsin at the Myers Grand tonight when Mayor William H. Upham, gentleman, scholar, soldier and business man will address a Bower City audience. The house will be filled to the door, as a rebuke to the roster rooster managers and their infamous organ which has been circulating the most venomous and unprincipled untruths about the man, by every employee who is fairminded and industrious swears allegiance. Despite the fact, that hundreds of Marshfield people and Upham employee has made sworn statements denying the blackleg stories of the stamless democratic manager; despite the fact that the

The trade is hardly possible, yet the lukewarm support that the democratic candidate for assembly is receiving, would indicate that something is the trouble.

W. M. WRIGHT AN INVALID FOR LIFE Pitiful Condition in Which the Indiana Wreck Left Him.

Many Janesville people will be pained to read of the pitiful condition in which W. M. Wright, the former Janesville insurance man lies on his bed at Monroe. The Sentinel says that Mr. and Mrs. Wright have returned with their children and effects to reside in their old home. Mr. Wright was the victim of a railway accident in Indiana about two years ago, and has been rendered a helpless invalid. Suit has been pending in the courts for damages, which was finally awarded by a jury for $9,500, from which the railroad company appealed, but subsequently offered to settle by payment of $8,000. A little more than the costs to Mr. Wright; and it is quite likely the supreme court will confirm the verdict of the jury and assess the costs on the railway

GEN DOE SWELLS UP 'NEATH HIS TINSEL

WASHINGTON PEOPLE NOW LAUGHING AT HIM.

He Aspires to Be Judge Advocate General of the United States Army Despite the Fact that Several Others Are Ahead of Him in the Line For Promotion.

General Joseph Bodwell Doe is getting "swelled up."

It is like this. The position of Judge advocate-general of the army will shortly be vacant by reason of the retirement of Brig.-Gen. David G. Swain. No nomination to fill the vacancy has been made, nor has any one been decided upon for the place. When the time comes the present acting judge advocate-general, Col. Lieber, will doubtless be promoted to the position. It is understood that Assistant Secretary of War J. B. Doe is a candidate for the place, but this is as far as his ambition has progressed.

The present judge advocate-general of the army, Brigadier General David G. Swain, has not been the acting judge advocate-general for a period of twelve years, having been sentenced by a court martial to a suspension of duty on half pay. At the time the sentence was imposed and approved by President Arthur, it was calculated that this suspension of twelve years would carry General Swain beyond sixty-four years, the age of compulsory retirement. This period is on the eve of expiration and necessarily confers the appointment of a brigadier-general upon President Cleveland.

His Ambition Is Too High.

The Sentinel's Washington correspondent says that: "The appointment of Assistant Secretary of War Doe to the head of the judge advocate-general corps is regarded there as absolutely hopeless. Quite a number of the corps are distinguished lawyers and at best two of them are considered standard authority on military jurisprudence all over the world, Colonels Lieber and Barr.

"A gentleman in high military and administration circles said that if the president should appoint Assistant Secretary Doe to be a judge advocate with the rank of major at the foot of the list that it would probably be within reason. But to take an outsider with neither war nor military record, and no familiarity whatever with military jurisprudence and place him over the heads of the officers of the corps enjoying military distinction in this and other branches of the service would be absolutely without justification.

"It is true that Gen. Swain was promoted by President Hayes over the heads of his superiors, but he was an officer of that corps and had served as such in the volunteer army prior to his appointment in the regular army. He was transferred from the regular army to the corps and had served in the corps for several years before his promotion to its head. It is true also that Gen. Joseph Holt and McKee Dunn, now both dead, were appointed to the head of the corps similarly, but both of these gentlemen were men of national reputation and of the highest legal ability and were celebrated because of their peculiar fitness for the place.

Laugh at the "General."

"Another injustice that would follow the appointment of an outsider and negative the proceedings almost invariably adhered to in the army lies in the fact that it would prevent the retirement with rank of brigadier general of several of the senior officers of the corps who are now approaching the age of sixty-four, and who by their long and meritorious service have earned their promotion in due course. The paid emoluments of the position are about $6,000 per year, and when the age of sixty-four is reached the incumbent is privileged to retire for life at seventy-five per cent of the pay proper of a brigadier general.

"As the nomination requires the confirmation of the senate, none will be made until after the convening of the next session of congress. If Doe or any other outsider should be nominated, his confirmation would be bitterly antagonized, and it would almost surely fail. The mere mention of Doe for the position is laughed at in military circles."

All this goes to show how big it makes the "General" feel to wear a uniform and leads the Sentinel to remark that: "As the originator of the roster steal, such an appointment would put a finishing touch on President Cleveland's profession of concern for purity in the public service."

BLUE AND DISHEARTED.

AND NOT WITHOUT VERY GOOD CAUSE.

It All Resulted From Weak Kidneys and a Torpid Liver—The Vast Importance of Those Organs If You Want to Feel Well.

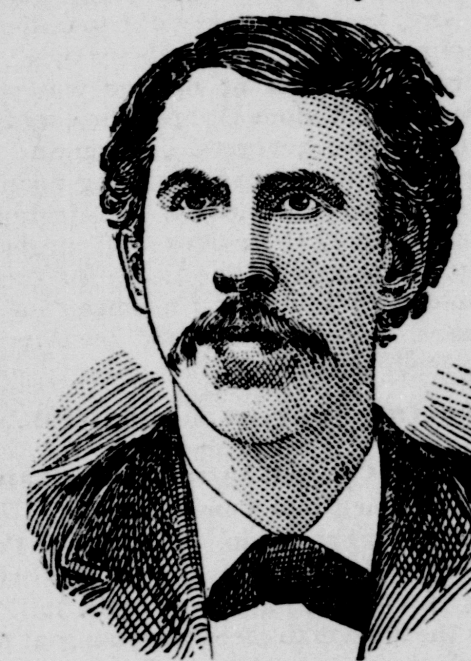

If your stomach, kidneys and liver don't do their work well, you will surely suffer. Inaction or diseases of those organs, clogs the whole system and makes bad blood and weak nerves. The complexion soon becomes pale or sallow, and dark lines appear under the eyes.

Other symptoms are sure to follow, such as bad taste in the mouth, gas in the stomach, loss of appetite, biliousness, constipation, sleeplessness, constipation, nervousness and exhaustion.

Everyone of these conditions leads to serious disease if not checked, Mr. A. C. Hartwell, of Gouldsville, Vt., states:

"About ten years ago, I was taken with a severe pain in my back and side, which arose from trouble with my liver and kidneys, I was also extremely nervous, being unable to sleep and get the needed rest.

"I could not work but part of the time, and when I did I was in pain all the time. This state of affairs lasted all winter. I consulted physicians who said I had kidney and liver trouble, but I derived no particular benefit from them, and was a good deal discouraged about myself.

MR. A. C. HARTWELL.

"I kept hearing about Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, what wonderful cures it had made, and my friends continually advised me to use it. I had tried many medicines with no good results, but finally concluded to try this one.

"I commenced using it, and felt the good results from it immediately. After using the second bottle I was entirely cured of all my troubles, and have had no return of them. I can truly recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as the best medicine I have ever used. It does all that is said of it."

This remedy is the surest cure ever known. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York city, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

MR. KIMBALL TELLS MORE COLD FACTS

SELDOM IS A CANDIDATE SO VICIOUSLY ATTACKED.

A Nameless Writer Misrepresents Him In the Recorder While The Populists Are Entirely Shameless—Denial Made Over His Own Signature Which Cannot Be Questioned.

It is seldom that a candidate for office is assailed so viciously upon subjects where so nearly right was done as Hon. Fenner Kimball the candidate for the third district. In the following communication Mr. Kimball tells the facts and no man in Rock county will have the face to question but what he tells the truth.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Circulars are being distributed throughout the Third assembly district signed "People's Party Committee." Some of the statements therein are so supremely absurd, so widely at variance with the truth, that I cannot let them pass without some refutation. The first statement is, the county has run in debt $200,000 and (by inference) this debt was caused by the purchase of the Barker farm and buildings; insane asylum, alms house, &c. Now, what are the facts in this case? I have before me the county treasurer's statement of the receipts and expenditures of the asylum fund dated October 19th, present year, which is as follows:

Bonds.....	$120,000 00
Premiums and accrued interest.....	1,579 16
Appropriation.....	16,000 00
Total.....	$137,579 16
Paid out to date.....	137,764 85

Cash on hand..... 114 31

Unpaid bills..... $27 69
Making total cost of county asylum alms, house, ice house, including all extras and farm..... $138,042 54
Instead of $200,000 as stated in circular. I am charged with being directly instrumental in the county board accepting the bid of Nowlan, Shearer & Peters for the construction of the county buildings instead of the bid of Hinkley & Powers, whose bid was decided to be not in accordance with the advertisement for bids (See pages 13-14 county proceedings 1893-94) and was thrown out, although lower than Nowlan, Shearer & Peters'.

I am also attacked in the circular about the now noted sewer contract. Of this I have already given the correct version of the whole matter over my signature and I stand by that now and need not refer to it again. The circular refers to Mr. Curtis' offer to furnish iron pipe for the new sewer at $16 per ton. They do not state that the price given by the contractors, including putting joints together with lead, laying 204 feet and bedding it in Rock river, below where ice would reach it. To do this it will be necessary to build a platform in the river. as the pipe must be put together before it can be put down.

The circular further says that the sewers and cesspool at the asylum costing $600 or $700 is worthless. Now this is not so. The new sewers connect with this sewer near the cesspool. So only the cesspool is worthless. This cesspool cost $241.60 instead of $600 or $700. The circular also speaks of paying interest on coal. This is a matter belonging to the trustees of the asylum. Of this I have nothing to do whatever.

Now this circular is distributed in the interest of John W. Haviland, the peoples' candidate. I have known Mr. Haviland for nearly forty years and have always believed him to be a man of integrity and honesty. But how he could consent to the circulating of such a tissue of untruths in his interests is more than I can account for. If his character is improved by such methods he is welcome to it.

democratic legislative committee, of which A. O. Wilson was a member, killed an anti-scrip bill; despite the fact that the same democratic legislature passed a bill making the lumbermen issue the same, they still howl about it. Their allegations are as false as their promises and the people know how spurious they were before, and are now.

Major Upham will arrive in the city this evening from Monroe. A public reception will be given him at the Myers house between 7 and 8 o'clock, when an opportunity will be given all citizens to shake hands with the next governor. The Imperial band will be present and furnish appropriate music for the occasion. After the reception the closing rally of the campaign will occur at the opera house. Major W. H. Upham and Hon. Theron P. Keator, of Illinois, will address the meeting, and Congressman Henry A. Cooper is expected to be present and address the people. Every one is invited to attend this meeting. Large delegations are expected from adjacent towns, for whom seats have been reserved.

There will be room for everyone, and everyone should be there.

MANY BUSINESS MEN COME OVER.

T. J. Salaman Met and Talked with Several Merchants Up North.

T. J. Salaman returned from a trip through northern Wisconsin yesterday, with satisfaction beaming in his eye.

"I saw George Dow, Sr., at Cambridge," said Mr. Salaman. "He is the father of the George Dow, of Madison, who turned republican. The father has now done likewise, and although he has been a life long democrat, he will vote for the republican candidates. The false charges against Major Upham which he knows to be false through his friend, Mr. Williams, a member of the firm, is responsible for his change of ideas."

"Then I met Oscar Hansen, a merchant at Cambridge, another life long democrat who will vote for Mr. Upham, as he says he has no use for democracy. Then there is Ed. Mueller, proprietor of the hotel at Jefferson. He told me that he had cast his last ballot for the state gang despite the fact that he has always been a democrat. William Hucks, a life-long West Des Moines democrat, is another man that I met who has seen the light. All these men I know and talked with and the woods are full of others as well."

POPULIST DEMOCRATIC TRADE?

Can it be That the Two Managers Have Come to an Agreement.

It is hardly possible that the democrats have gone back on their candidate for the assembly by trading with the populist prohibition combination.

company. Anyone who knew Mr. Wright as he was, and saw him now would say that $25,000 would not be an excessive verdict—indeed money could not pay for the sufferings to which he and his family have been subjected.

POOR MATERIAL IS BEING USED

Members of The School Board Talk of High School Brick.

The Recorder this morning publishes an excuse for the using of inferior material in the new school building.

The Gazette is told by members of the school board that such is not the fact. "Poor material is being used," said Commissioner Clemons, "and I will not blame the papers if they pitch in. They deserve it."

"There has been some fault found with the material," replied Clerk John Cunningham. "The material has been examined, and none of it will be used where weight is to be sustained, or upon which pillars or columns are to rest."

"Are the walls where this poor material has been used to be taken down?"

"I think not. The architect was here this week and gave orders that this poor material should not be used except in back filling."

Another commissioner who has labored by day and by night to secure the building, says it is a shame that anything but the very best material is allowed in the construction, and said he would not allow a child of his in such a building, until he was doubly assured that there was no possibility of an accident by the giving way of floors. Further explanations from the board are patiently awaited.

William Gardner Will Collect $50 From Henry Rockwell for Slander.

MINUIT'S MISTAKE.

He Lost Money When He Bought Manhattan Island for $24.

History tells us that 268 years ago, or in 1626, Peter Minuit bought Manhattan island from the Indians and paid $24 in merchandise.

It has usually been thought that Peter took advantage of the ignorance of the untutored savage and made an excellent bargain for himself.

No doubt but that Peter thought it was a good trade, particularly when he considered the value of lots after the streets would be laid out, Central park improved, Brooklyn bridge built and the island had a population of 2,000,000; for Peter was a shrewd real estate speculator and looked a long way ahead with a correct, prophetic eye.

Notwithstanding all of Peter's shrewdness and foresight he made the mistake of his life and lost millions of dollars by the purchase. He didn't stop to figure interest.

Since 1626 the rate of interest in this country, where money has always been in demand, has ranged from six per cent up to highway robbery. It will be conservative to say that eight per cent is a fair average.

Now, if Peter had loaned his $24 at eight per cent compound interest, from then until this date, what would its value be compared to the value of Manhattan island?

At eight per cent compound interest money will double once in about nine years. Now there have been twenty-nine times nine years, and seven years more, since Peter made his purchase. Then, if he had loaned his $24 he would have had nearly $400,000 at the end of the first 100 years, and more than $200,000,000 at the close of the second century, while in 1894 his principal of $24 would have grown to be $20,000,000,000—the value of Manhattan island many times over.

killed and injured.

A VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN.

For an "off year" the campaign just closing has been one of the most vigorous in the history of state politics.
The republican party has been alert and the result of tireless work will be apparent when the polls close next Tuesday. Never in the history of the party have so many ready speakers been found, who were willing to devote time, energy and money to what they believed to be the welfare of the public. These impromptu speakers have sprung from the ranks of labor, the shops, the farm and every vocation, finding on every hand object lessons that invited ready discussion, and backed up argument along republican lines, with cold facts.

The idle mills and silent machinery and the thousands of willing workers whose hands have been tied because of business depression, have everywhere furnished republican speakers with a topic of inexhaustible resources. The meetings have been largely attended and the interest manifest is conclusive evidence that public thought and sentiment are aroused and that the verdict at the polls will be emphatic.

The republican party is always at it: best in great emergencies.
It was on the right side in 1861 and during the dark days of rebellion and the perplexing years of reconstruction that followed, it so wisely guided the ship of state that the credit and good name of the nation was preserved and prosperity restored.

The crisis of 1894, unlike 1861, lacks the elements of Rebellion, but possesses many of the elements of destruction. In sympathy with England now as then, the same democratic party forms alliances to foster and build up foreign industries at the expense of American capital and labor.
Two years of democracy has demonstrated what the inevitable result would be if continued, and the republican party backed by the great tide of sentiment that always rallies to the support in an emergency, will say to this party of reform and great moral pretense: "Return to the oblivion that you enjoyed for thirty years."

The free trade war on American labor is universal. It affects the south as well as the north and from all parts of the country an earnest protest will be heard.
The industries of Louisiana will join with the industries of Minnesota, and demand that democratic interference with American labor and enterprise must be stopped.
The battle of ballots in 1894 will be as potent as the battle of bullets in 1861.

MAJOR UPHAM'S POPULARITY.

The popularity of Major W. H. Upham and the esteem in which he is held by his fellow citizens of Marshfield was well shown in the vote given him when he was elected twice mayor of that city. The first time he was elected Mr. Upham received all but fourteen votes. He made such an excellent mayor that on the second occasion he received all but four. This is a record to be proud of.

WORK OF TARIFF TINKERS.

"Mill closed. The first time in thirty years. What is the matter?"
This was the sign that was ticked
on the door of the Racine woolen mills.
Where the mill usually received

$500 worth of orders per day at this season of the year they are practically receiving no orders at all. Here is a lesson; vote against free trade and for the republicans who represent protection and prosperity, on Tuesday.

PROMINENT EVANSVILLE MAN DEAD

J. A. Joscelyn Suddenly Summoned—W.
Hoskins' House Burns.
EVANSVILLE, Nov. 3.—J. A. Joscelyn, a highly respected citizen died suddenly of heart trouble Thursday, and the funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon and will doubtless be nity, as Mr. Joscelyn was an exemplary craftsman. The residence of Warren Hoskins of Magnolia, was destroyed by fire Wednesday evening, but was insured.

At a dramatic entertainment given by home talent Thursday night, a knife flew from the hands of one of the actors and slightly wounded Professor Gettle. As the knife struck near the eye he is to be congratulated on still being able to see clearly. C.
W. Wetherwood, ex-p. m. of Oregon, and chairman of the Dane county

War is Inevitable.

While the storm is raging all around us, we are happy. We have thoroughly proven to the citizens of Jamesville and vicinity that we are always catering to their interests. The one thought for you to keep uppermost in your minds, is that we cut any price named by any other dry goods house in Jamesville, no difference what it is.
We buy all our goods for spot cash,
and thus get advantage of discounts, which 90 days and 4 month purchasers cannot get. These discounts we give to our customers. We divide all profits.

BART BAILEY & Co.

Summer Days Will Come Again.

This is the song he sung as he stood in front and looked for customers that never came. This has been a great day for the clothing business. We have never had such a rush, and supposed the other fellows were fairly busy from our overflow, but we are very reliably informed that but two customers darkened our little imitator's door. We don't understand why he don't catch on. He's not such a bad fellow, and he writes all his own ads, from Printers Ink. Of course they are original and should take.

AND WIFE OF BOSTON. MASS.

Will Give Four LECTURES in

Light Infantry Armory.

FIRST LECTURE

Sunday Afternoon, Nov. 4

HIS SUBJECT:

"Why I Left the Roman Catholic Priesthood, and What I Saw Therein."

Father Slattery will dress in public before his audience in his "Priest's Vestments." He is the only ex-priest in America today that wears them. It will be a rare treat for Protestants to see the "toggy-ry" and "Pagan Vestments" of the Roman church. Scapulars of all kinds, and beads will be exhibited, also the Bosch Water God, large and small.
His equal was never before heard in this city.
Crowds everywhere. His lectures will be the talk of the city. His first visit here. He is gifted, eloquent and witty and challenges any priest or bishop to meet him in debate. You will see something you never saw before—a priest's wife. He receives the warmest applause. The hall will be packed on this occasion.

hear Slattery. He has no equal on this question. It is only once in a lifetime you have a chance of hearing a man of his ability.

Believe nothing that you hear or read that is uncomplimentary in regard to Mr. Slattery or his lecture. Remember all such are written by persons who are prejudiced. Resolve to hear him for yourself.

To cover expenses of printing, hall and traveling, the following prices are adopted:
Admission, Sunday afternoon and night, 15

War is Inevitable.

While the storm is raging all around us, we are happy. We have thoroughly proven to the citizens of Janesville and vicinity that we are always catering to their interests. The one thought for you to keep uppermost in your minds, is that we cut any price named by any other dry goods house in Janesville, no difference what it is. We buy all our goods for spot cash, and thus get advantage of discounts, which 90 days and 4 month purchasers cannot get. These discounts we give to our customers. We divide all profits. BERT BAILEY & Co.

Summer Days Will Come Again.

This is the song he sung as he stood in front and looked for customers that never came. This has been a great day for the clothing business. We have never had such a rush, and supposed the other fellows were fairly busy from our overflow, but we are very reliably informed that but two customers darkened our little imitator's door. We don't understand why he don't catch on. He's not such a bad fellow, and he writes all his own ads, from Printers Ink. Of course they are original and should take. T. J. ZIEGLER.

WOMEN OF ALL AGES

And conditions in life are liable at times, to need an invigorating tonic: a Regulator of the natural, periodical function, and a Soothing and Bracing Nerve. For this purpose Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine so certain in its curative action that it can be guaranteed. Your money is returned if it does not cure.

In Maidenhood, Womanhood, and Motherhood, it invigorates and braces up the exhausted, run-down, overworked and delicate; allays and banishes all Nervous Weakness, Pits, Spasms, Hysteria, Chorea, or St. Vitus's Dance; corrects all unnatural irregularities of monthly function and cures Periodical Pains, Weaknesses, Bearing Down Sensations, Backache, Catarrhal Inflammation, Ulceration and kindred maladies. For those about to become mothers, it is a priceless boon, for it lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens "labor" and the period of confinement, and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

COMING TO JANESVILLE

EX-PRIEST SLATTERY

AND WIFE OF BOSTON. MASS.

Will Give Four LECTURES in

Light Infantry Armory.

FIRST LECTURE

Sunday Afternoon, Nov. 4

HIS SUBJECT:

Why I Left the Roman Catholic Priesthood, and What I Saw Therein.

Father Slattery will dress in public before his audience in his "Priest's Vestments." He is the only ex-priest in America today that wears them. It will be a rare treat for Protestants to see the "rogue" and "Pagan Vestments" of the Roman church. Scapulars of all kinds, and beads will be exhibited, also the Romish Wafer God, large and small.

His equal was never before heard in this city. Crowds everywhere. His lectures will be the talk of the city. His first visit here. He is gifted, eloquent and witty and challenges any priest or bishop to meet him in debate. You will see something you never saw before—a priest's wife. He receives the warmest applause. The hall will be packed on this occasion.

SECOND LECTURE.

Sunday Night, Nov. 4.

By MRS. SLATTERY.

Subject—Her Rescue From the Convent by her cousin, Lady Morton, of England.

She will wear the full Nun's Dress of the order to which she belonged.

Life in a convent is a world in itself. She will so explain the details of "taking the veil."

MRS. SLATTERY, known as Sister Mary Elizabeth in the convent, speaks to ladies only, Monday afternoon, November 5.

Mrs. SLATTERY to men only, Monday night, November 5, on the "Secrets of the Confessional."

A thousand ladies attended in Milwaukee and two thousand in New York.

This will be the greatest treat of your life to hear Slattery. He has no equal on this question. It is only once in a lifetime you have a chance of hearing a man of his ability.

Believe nothing that you hear or read that is uncomplimentary in regard to Mr. Slattery or his lecture. Remember all such are written by persons who are prejudiced. Resolve to hear him for yourself.

To cover expenses of printing, hall and traveling, the following prices are adopted:

Admission, Sunday afternoon and night, 15 cents. Reserved seats, 25 cents.

Admission Monday afternoon and night, 25 cents. Reserved seats, 35 cents.

All lectures free. Tickets commence at three and eight o'clock Sunday, and half past two on Monday. Doors open an hour before.

No tickets so far in advance.

Ladies and gentlemen admitted to both Sunday lectures, when admissions are cheaper.

Mr. Slattery does not come to this city under the auspices of any Society or Organization, but travels altogether under the direction of his manager.

A thousand seats will be provided.

THE men's meeting Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. rooms will be led by S. D. Conant, Subject, "Pressing Forward." The men of Janesville need this meeting, and the Y. M. C. A. need the assistance of every man to help and encourage young men from a life that is a failure, to a successful one. The songs are inspiring, the talks are stimulating. The fellow spirit is stronger for having met together, and time will be well spent and your interest in men about you will be strong and permanent. Sacrifice to be present from 3 to 4 Sunday afternoon.

A FINE musician, well known in our city, happened in our store the other day, and attracted by the fine appearance of the Shaw, played a piece or two upon it. As he finished playing he remarked, "That is the finest instrument I ever played upon." His opinion is backed by all who know the piano. Call at our store and see them. S. C. Burnham & Co., the jewelers and music dealers.

CROWDED store, crowded street, in fact it looked like circus day at our clothing house all day, while our poor little "would be double" imagined he was in a grave yard. We don't propose to stop here but will keep the ball rolling for fifteen days. Never in your life could you buy clothing at such prices, 30 cents on the dollar. T. J. Ziegler.

ONE department that is receiving a good share of attention is the line of infants' and children's wear. A new line of eiderdown cloaks, angora trimmed at $3, and special values in infants' slips, short white dresses, long cloaks, embroidered flannels, blankets, jackets, shirts, bands, booties, mittens, &c. Archie Reid & Co.

THERE is nothing wrong in asking a favor providing it is a rational request. A. F. Hall & Co., the "reliable jewelers" are getting new things every day and will consider it a favor if you will call and see them. Do not feel that you must buy but just go in and look around. Will you do them the favor?

Up to yesterday this has been a dull season at Lake Koshkonong and shooters are not getting many ducks. Large boats and floating blinds do not deceive the birds, and the men who can manage a small boat in a rough sea are the ones who get the best shooting. The change in the weather gives promise of better things.

A WILD Rock county steer created considerable excitement up in the First ward this morning. The steer appeared to realize that the slaughter pen was not many hours ahead of it, and with head and tail erect bid defiance to all attacks. The crazy animal was finally captured on Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Willitz entertained a large number of friends last evening, in honor of Miss Franc Loucke. Cards formed the chief amusement, and the occasion was one that all who attended will remember.

FISTS ONCE RULED IN HAPPY HOLLOW

BUT NOW IT IS PAY WHEN YOU PUNCH.

If You Don't Believe It Ask Isaac O'Clare Who Had to Give Up $21 for Whipping Christopher Christopher—School Boys Battle Aired Before the Court.

Happy Hollow is an historic locality famed for fights and fighters; but you can't punch a man down there for fun anymore. The day when the "best man ruled" is gone. That's why it cost Isaac O'Clare of the town of Rock, $21 to black one of Christopher Christopher's eyes. It appears that a ten-year old son of Mr. O'Clare's got into trouble with Mrs. Christopher. Mr. Christopher, who is not well versed in the English language, went to the father of the boy to remonstrate, and if possible have the boy punished. Mr. O'Clare took exceptions to the manner in which Christopher approached him, and in the language of the profession "punched him plenty." The lad was arrested for assaulting Mrs. Christopher, but when the case was called the judge was of the opinion that the father had already paid sufficient penalty for the whipping of the Christopher family, so the lad was discharged with a severe reprimand.

The case of the state against James A. Irwin has occupied the municipal court with a jury, all day. Irwin is charged with assaulting William J. Holleran. Both are small boys, who had a fight on their way home from school. A large number of witnesses were sworn, mostly playmates of the fighters. At 3 o'clock the jury found Irwin not guilty.

The True Tonic—The Turkish Bath. "The Supreme Luxury of Cleanliness," affords unequalled hygienic and therapeutic advantages. It is positively a preventative of sickness, and is also an efficacious remedial agent of the highest excellence. Cleanliness is the visible evidence of one's politeness. The bath improves the general health. Tones up the entire physical system. Quickens and strengthens the heart's action. Regulates the movements of the vital fluids. Equalizes the circulation of the blood. Actively stimulates the nutritive forces of the organism. Creates a hearty, wholesome appetite. Develops weak, impoverished parts. Rounds out the muscles to plumpness. Improves the form emaciated by disease. Reduces abnormal obesity. Eliminates the waste fluids and effete particles of worn out tissue which, if retained, would be a dangerous source of constant embarrassment and a virulent poison to the adjacent healthy muscular substance. Increases the activity of the absorbent function; more quickly removing the deleterious elements of danger from the body. Quiets the excited nerves. Gives natural, refreshing sleep. Restores the impaired energies. Clears, brightens and beautifies the complexion. Washes the blood. Purifies, invigorates and strengthens. Every function and faculty participates in its genial and exalting influences. Efficiency aids nature in attaining and subsequently maintaining an equilibrium of the vital powers and energies. Prevents disease from becoming seated. Alleviates pain and mitigates the intensity of suffering. Perfects functional control of the physiological processes. Obviates local congestion and stagnation of the fluids in the tissues. Cures disease when ordinary remedies fail to afford relief. Is better than drugs or medicines. Vastly more efficacious than any remedy of physicians in ordinary practices. Materia Medica contains nothing offering equal control over disease, or promising as speedy relief to the invalid sufferer. Intelligence, refinement and discriminating discernment recognize its superiority, utility and value, as an economic factor of paramount worth, to the whole community. Medical authorities unanimously endorse and recommend it. The most eminent practitioners approve, freely prescribe and use it themselves. The Norris Baths enjoy an extended reputation for excellence. No. 257 South Jackson street.

MR. F. E. GREENE, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davies, left this morning for San Francisco, to join her husband who has just returned from a cruise in the Behring sea.

AN incipient fire at the Sutherland Sanitarium on North Main street this morning did damage to the extent of fifteen to twenty dollars. An alarm was turned in from box 28, and the fire was quickly extinguished.

A BIG week this has been. Monday we start in with the full determination of making next week much better. Will you help us? We will give you $1 worth of goods for 30 cents on many articles for 15 days from November 1. T. J. Ziegler.

THEY HAD A FINE TRIP OUT WEST Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fildfield Home From Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fildfield returned from the Pacific coast Thursday evening. Mrs. Sherer, Mrs. Thomas Fildfield and Miss Kate Fildfield, who accompanied them, are spending a few days in Chicago, and will return next week. The party spent ten days in Yellowstone Park, visited Tacoma, Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, San Francisco, Santa Clara, Barbara, the big trees of Santa Cruz, Mount Hamilton, Los Angeles, and many other points of interest. They report a very pleasant journey; but say that Janesville and Wisconsin never looked better to them than after an absence of three months.

PRETTY PARTY AT THE ARMORY.

The Hokey Pokey Club to Give Their Second Party Tuesday Evening.

Next Tuesday evening, November 6, at Light Infantry Armory, the Hokey Pokey club will give another of their enjoyable parties. The hall will be decorated with flowers, and Smith's full orchestra will be present to furnish the inspiration. The success of their first party insures a large attendance, and those who may have the pleasure of being there Tuesday night will have no cause to regret it, as the arrangement committee spare no pains nor expense in making these the most pleasant parties of the season.

GAS NEARLY KILLED MISS SETZER.

Cooksville Dressmaker Found Unconscious In Her Room and May Die.

Miss Mary Setzer was found unconscious and nearly dead in her room at Cooksville, from the effects of coal gas. She had opened a dressmaking shop there and procured a second hand stove from which the gas escaped during the night while she was sleeping. It was thought all day yesterday that her chances of recovery were very small, but later accounts are more favorable.

Ex-Priest Slattery.

An immense attendance will listen to Mr. Slattery in Light Infantry Armory tomorrow, Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 3 o'clock. He is said to be an eloquent and witty Irishman, a handsome, fine-looking man and a charming and captivating speaker. The best and most respectable class of people are requested to attend. In every California city he had immense audiences. He speaks extemporaneously, which makes him all the more interesting. He is highly educated, and receives the heartiest of applause. All other speakers on this question are mere imitators in comparison to Slattery. He draws as great crowds as does De Witt Talmage, Robert Ingersoll or Moody. No church or hall was large enough to hold the crowd in San Francisco. Remember Mrs. Slattery speaks Sunday night, the then two private lectures on Monday. See advertisement in today's paper.

Nothing Like It Ever Seen in Janesville.

This sale is not made to disappoint anyone but to please and satisfy all. Sale starts Monday, November 5. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Many handsome presents, which the guests brought with them, will serve to remind them of the happy occasion in years to come, and many friends will extend their congratulations.

Monuments.

Mr. F. A. Bennett has just finished setting one of the largest and finest monuments in Oak Hill cemetery. It is on the lot of the late S. A. Pond and is an ornament to the cemetery and a credit to the firm that furnished it. He has also furnished one for the Kobelin lot which is very fine though not so large.

A VERY pretty window is that F. C. Cook & Co. have of watches, both ladies and gents; the best time pieces in the world are there displayed, and the prices are so reasonable that buying is very easy.

THE '93 LEAF CROP SELLS QUITE WELL

JANESVILLE DEALERS HAVE SOLD A GOOD DEAL.

Holders of Desirable Stock Disposed to Go a Little Above the Offered Price—Wet Weather Has Resulted In Some Work On the New Crop.

While Rock county tobacco, isn't moving very fast the market is not absolutely dead. There is little to note. At Edgerton the pursuit for the remnants of the '92 crop is becoming more spirited as the crops become more scarce, nor do the buyers in search for it diminish. There is also a good healthy business being done in '93 leaf and local packers who have unloaded some of their old stock are commencing to accumulate holdings of '93.

In Janesville, while the better grades have the call, the poorer grades are being picked up to some extent. Holders of desirable stock are disposed to go a shade higher in their asking price. Among the sales reported are: 147 cases '93 by Soverhill & Porter; 74 cases '93 by the Tobacco Growers' Association; one carload '92 by S. Grundy, and 50 cases '92 by J. L. & M. F. Green; and 20 cases by Heddles & Carter, also 70 cases '93 bought by this firm and 50 cases '92 bought by J. L. & M. F. Green; and 20 cases by Heddles & Carter; also 70 cases '93 bought by this firm and 50 cases '92 bought by J. L. & M. F. Green. S. Soverhill, F. S. Baines, Paul Oleson, N. Jones and G. H. Rumliff are active.

The damp weather of the past week has furnished the first opportunity to growers to remove from the poles some of the early harvested tobacco, which is now thoroughly cured.

My Wife and I.

Come, light the lamp, little wife,
And sit thee down, love, with me.
Let us enjoy this fleeting eve,
And make us as merry as we can be.

We have had much of sunshine, darling,
And we hope to have still more;
Yet we know not what may come to us
And to Thee, O God, we do implore:

That our hearts may not lose their lightness,
That our love will ever remain;
And that home will be the very best place
Even though it be humble and plain.

We care not for wealth, you and I,
Only for comfort it brings;
But we pray for health, my darling,
For that tunes all our heart strings.

Then nestle your head against my breast
As you did in all days gone by,
We will never forget Him who dwells above,
For He remembered you and I.

THEY WERE SUSPICIOUS.

The Lady Promised, But the Boys Wouldn't Trust Her.

It happened at one of the island lake resorts of Wisconsin. A young man from Chicago was stopping there with his wife, and the wife had wandered down to the shore of the lake to enjoy the evening breeze. A short pier jutting out into the lake looked inviting, and she went out on it, unmindful of several small urchins who were hovering about the boat house at the shore end of the pier. A few minutes later her husband came to the lake to join her, but was intercepted by one of the urchins.

"Say, mister, is that your girl?" asked the boy.

"She is my wife," replied the young man.

"Well, you tell her to go home, cause we boys wants to go in swimmin'," said the youngster, and, thinking that would settle the matter, they all retired to the boat house to address.

The young man promptly informed his wife of the request, but she was enjoying herself and was not anxious to leave. She laughed, and called to a new arrival at the boat house:

"Tell the boys," she said, when he had come to her, "to run out and jump in the water if they wish to. I won't look."

The little fellow hurried to the boat house with the message, and there was an immediate council of war. At its conclusion he returned to the end of the pier and said:

"Please, ma'am, the boys say they don't risk it."

A MAN'S POCKET.

Filled With no Account Staff That He Treasures.

"Men are fond of laughing at the little ways and whims of women," said our sprightly hostess, "but I wish some man would explain to me why he carries unimportant papers about with him for months, wearing them out in so doing."

"I have often watched my husband carefully change the contents of coat or trousers pockets from one suit of clothes to another. Soiled, worn envelopes and folded papers are tenderly transferred, and for a long time I was impressed with the importance of the operation, and drew an involuntary sigh of relief when the operation was over. One day my curiosity got the better of me, and I begged for a sight of those mysterious documents guarded with so much care."

"To please me my husband examined them. He found several unrecipited bills—some that had been paid and receipts filed; a note from a friend, dated three months back, regretting that he didn't find him in his office when he called; one or two business cards of firms he had no recollection of knowing; several advertisement circulars, a play bill of last season's performance, preserved for some forgotten temporary reason, and perhaps three really important papers among the whole lot. And I honestly believe if I had not prompted the investigation he would be treasuring those worthless bits of paper to this day, under the impression that they were of value."

A Temple of Health.

Where vigor, good digestion, appetite and sound repose minister to physical comfort, is the body structure which, however much its foundations have been sapped by ill health, has been restored—re-built, as it were—by the great renovating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Nothing infuses strength into a debilitated frame like this saving medicine, which in the vigor and regularity it imparts to the system, endows it with the surest defense against disease, and the best guaranty of a long life and hale old age. Worn out men of business, tired mechanics, overworked mill hands and miners broken down by hardship and exposure to malaria, mariners and tourists all declare that it is the best safeguard against the mildest of fevers, the most violent of colds, and the most dangerous of ailments. Incomparable for rheumatic, kidney and nervous troubles.

So, in fact, the Indians got the best of the bargain, and no doubt they chuckled over the situation as they walked down through Baxter street with $24 worth of merchandise in their arms.

TO HELP WOMEN.

That Is Why This Woman Writes.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
Few people have any idea of the suffering that oppresses some women.

Pains run rampant through their entire bodies. They suffer secretly as long as they can, and then go all to pieces and don't care what happens.

Yet this misery is easily relieved; thousands of American women proclaim the fact.

The portrait presented here is that of Mrs. J. M. Bender, who lives on the old York Road at Nicetown, Pa. She has been for many years in very poor health.

She had falling of the womb and other forms of female weakness, with headache, severe backache, pains all over her body, and serious kidney trouble.

Her blood was in such a bad state that physicians said she had dropsy. Nearly discouraged she tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to her great surprise it made her a well woman.

She now wishes to tell women all over the world to take the Vegetable Compound and be well. Any druggist has it.

Nothing in all the world has cured so many cases of female weaknesses as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

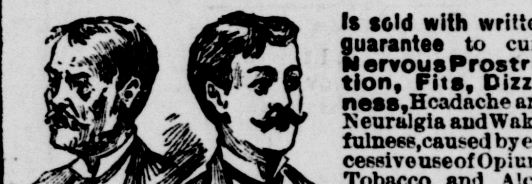

Why don't you try it?

VARIOUS NOTES

Braided Jackets Worn Again—Whims In Stationery.

Toques, which are again in fashion, are usually trimmed with velvet, this being held in place by motifs of jet or numerous little gilded pins.

Tea gowns and tea jackets are still in high favor and are more and more esteemed in France, to which they are not native. A pretty model of a tea jacket is of geranium surah entirely accented plaited. It is trimmed with bands of lace insertion across the bosom and has a belt of insertion. The neck, which is slightly cut down, has a wide lace collar. The accented plaited elbow sleeves have plaited caps.

EVENING WRAP.

Extremely small stationery is appearing again, and Parisian taste permits it to be perfumed, although to English and American women this custom does not commend itself.

The darts and back seams of some of the new jackets are outlined with braid or galloon, not a pretty fashion, but a la mode, which insures its being more or less followed.

There is a fancy for trimming coats and capes with motifs of velvet in applique. Sometimes they form bands and borders, and again they are employed in a detached form. They are usually combined with stitching.

The draped skirt is not so generally adopted as was anticipated. Skirts have more or less trimming, but it is nearly always flat and is of a character to add little to the weight of the garment. The panel and the tabler are the styles mainly favored. Perhaps as skirts become narrower drapery will advance to the front.

A sketch is given of an entirely new evening wrap. The body is of pale rose faille, while the fronts and yoke are of old blue plush. The pelerine is of rose brocade, plaited at the shoulders under knots of satin and motifs of pearl passementerie. The medici collar and the fronts are edged with fur.

PARISIAN IDEAS.

Gowns Show Exquisite Color Combinations. Jet a Popular Garniture.

The Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Paris having taken exception to a fully developed Spanish bull fight which lately occurred in that city, a woman fills several paragraphs of a Parisian society journal with arguments and ridicule against the objectors to the aforesaid gentle sport. At first thought it may seem astonishing that Paris, which considers itself and is considered by everybody except Englishmen the center of the civilized world, should yet retain enough barbarism to enjoy a spectacle the chief features of which are mutilation and bloodshed. It is not, however, necessary to scratch any of the Latin races very deeply in order to find the savage. The most that civilization, even of the highest order, seems to do for them is to give them a superficial coating of gentle manners. It is to be hoped that la belle dame sans merci who writes for the papers pines for bull fights rather because they avoid her an opportunity of showing her pretty clothes than because she desires to gloat over disemboweled horses, since these entertainments, like all others in the reputed paradise of Americans, serve as an excuse for the blossoming of a whole flower garden of toilets.

Materials and trimmings are unusually sumptuous in quality and color this winter, and costumes, especially those of a formal character, are constructed with great elaboration. The one shown in the illustration, for instance, is a laurel green velvet redingote bordered with sable over a violet peau de soie skirt. The yoke and full front of the corsage are of peau de soie and are richly trimmed with an open arrangement of jet which forms bretelles, which extend below the waist line. The lower part of the sleeves is of green velvet, as are the sable trimmed sleeve caps, while the puffs are of peau de soie.

Dignity.

On none does dignity sit more gracefully than upon the woman who has lived beyond her first youth. She may be as youthful as her heart is if she preserves a sweet, womanly dignity throughout, but let her descend to foolish simpering and kittenish ways, and she loses the advantages of her years and comes down to mere ordinariness.—Buffalo News.

We Pay for Ideas

We need TWENTY or MORE original and striking designs for Newspaper Advertisements of SANTA CLAUS SOAP. The manufacturer, W. E. Clark Soap Company, will pay TEN DOLLARS EACH for approved drawings with appropriate reading; or $5.00 each for designs or reading matter only. This offer is open to all. The competition will close December 1. As soon as possible after that date we will pay for accepted designs and return the others. Remember, for complete, acceptable advertisements we pay

Directions.—Make drawings with black ink on heavy white paper, or card board. Do the work in outline. Elaborate shading will not print well. Space in papers will be four inches square. Draw to larger scale if you prefer, but have design square. The idea is most important. If that is good we can have it redrawn and still give you credit. Avoid poetry. Get up an ad. that would make you buy the article.

Points.—Santa Claus is a pure, high-grade Soap—made for laundry and general household use—a favorite wherever known. Merits generous praise. Sold by all grocers, wholesale and retail.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK
JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 24, 1894.
To the electors of Rock county:

Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the sixth day of November, 1894, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, and the questions submitted to a vote, are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its appropriate column below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark, X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all of the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased or pasted over a printed name. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should erase the names of the candidates he does not desire to vote for, and make a cross mark, X, after the name of each candidate he does desire to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office and make a cross, X, in the square at the right of it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandums, to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers, in marking same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

A TEMPERANCE READING CLUB

Meeting Tuesday Evening Will Result in Its Formation.

There will be a meeting at the I. O. G. T. hall Tuesday evening November 6, for the purpose of organizing a reading circle. The work of the circle will be the studying of scientific temperance. The books to be taken up will be "Alcohol and Science," by William Hargraves, M. D. "Our Wasted Resources, and Worse Than Wasted" by William Hargraves. "Temperance Physiology" by John Guthrie. "Talks on Temperance" by Cannon Farrar and "The Captain's Bargain" by Mrs. J. McNair Wright.

A general invitation is extended to all to be present. A special invitation is extended to the teachers and professors of the schools, as the work will be a great help to them in their school work. Let all interested in temperance work join and learn why God and the church says, "Thou shalt not," and the individual says "I will not" use intoxicants; and why the state says to her teachers "You must show your scholars the effects of intoxicants upon the human system."

E. P. HUMPHREY, Ch'n.
